Gameplay

HUD

- weapon overheat statusbar
- shieldbar shows shield fill status
- healthbar shows ship integrity status

OVERHEATING

overheating your weapon causes your weaponsystems to reboot which takes a few seconds - try to avoid it and consider upgrading your franzing cooling systems.

Upgrade points

- Upgradepoints are sometimes spawned by enemys
- You'll need to collect them actively with your player ship
- The upgrade screen appears at the start of each stage as soon you collected enough point to buy an upgrade
- Once points spend can't be taken back after leaving the upgrade screen
